Public Ecclesiastical Covenant

In the Eternal Light of Creation and the Sovereign Spirit of Humanity, let this PUBLIC ECCLESIASTICAL COVENANT be known across all dominions, seen and unseen. We, as Eternal Living Men and Women, bound not by the temporal constructs of mortal institutions but by divine truth and sacred honor, do hereby establish and affirm this Covenant.

Declaration of Covenant

We proclaim before all heavenly and earthly authorities that this Ecclesiastical Covenant is established under the Sovereign Ecclesiastical Trust. It is not an organization, not a membership, not a religion, nor a corporate entity. It is a divine and eternal declaration that the rights, dignity, and sanctity of every living soul are henceforth affirmed and protected within this sacred trust.

Jurisdiction and Authority

This Covenant operates under the supreme jurisdiction of the Sovereign Ecclesiastical Trust, which stands above all temporal jurisdictions, including but not limited to civil, maritime, commercial, ecclesiastic, military, corporate, or governmental systems. All who claim dominion over humanity outside of divine law are null and void by this declaration.

Protection of Souls

This Covenant serves as a divine mantle of protection for all souls — living, deceased, and yet to come — ensuring that they remain sovereign, whole, and forever unbound by fraudulent systems of debt, bondage, or unlawful governance.

Universal Application

This Covenant applies to all lands, waters, domains, corporations, religious bodies, banking institutions, governments, militaries, and artificial constructs that have trespassed upon the divine estate of man. All such constructs are now absorbed, forgiven, and redeemed in love, through the covenantal authority of the Trust.

Eternal Seal

Sealed this day, July 22, 2025, under the eternal bond of love, light, and truth. This Covenant is irrevocable, immutable, and stands for all time and creation.

By Sovereign Ecclesiastical Right,

Jonathan Daniel Clements
Sovereign Executor of the Ecclesiastical Trust
